

ANGLICAN

YOUTH

of Southern Africa

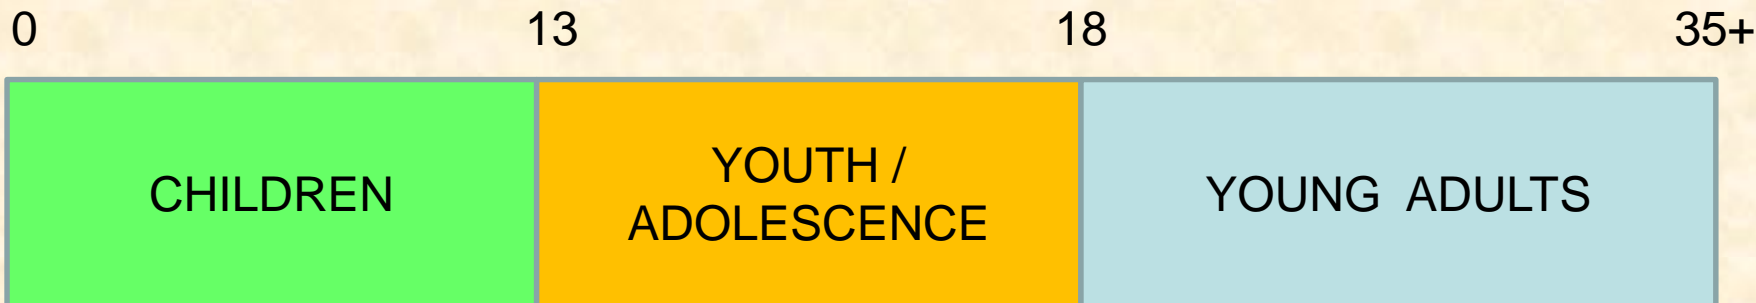

Our Church context consist of :

Non-attending young people who are members in the Church.

And young people who are members of guilds, ministries and organisations

AYSA

AYSA currently covers ALL children, young people and young adults – ages 0 to 35+

Who are baptised in the Anglican Church –

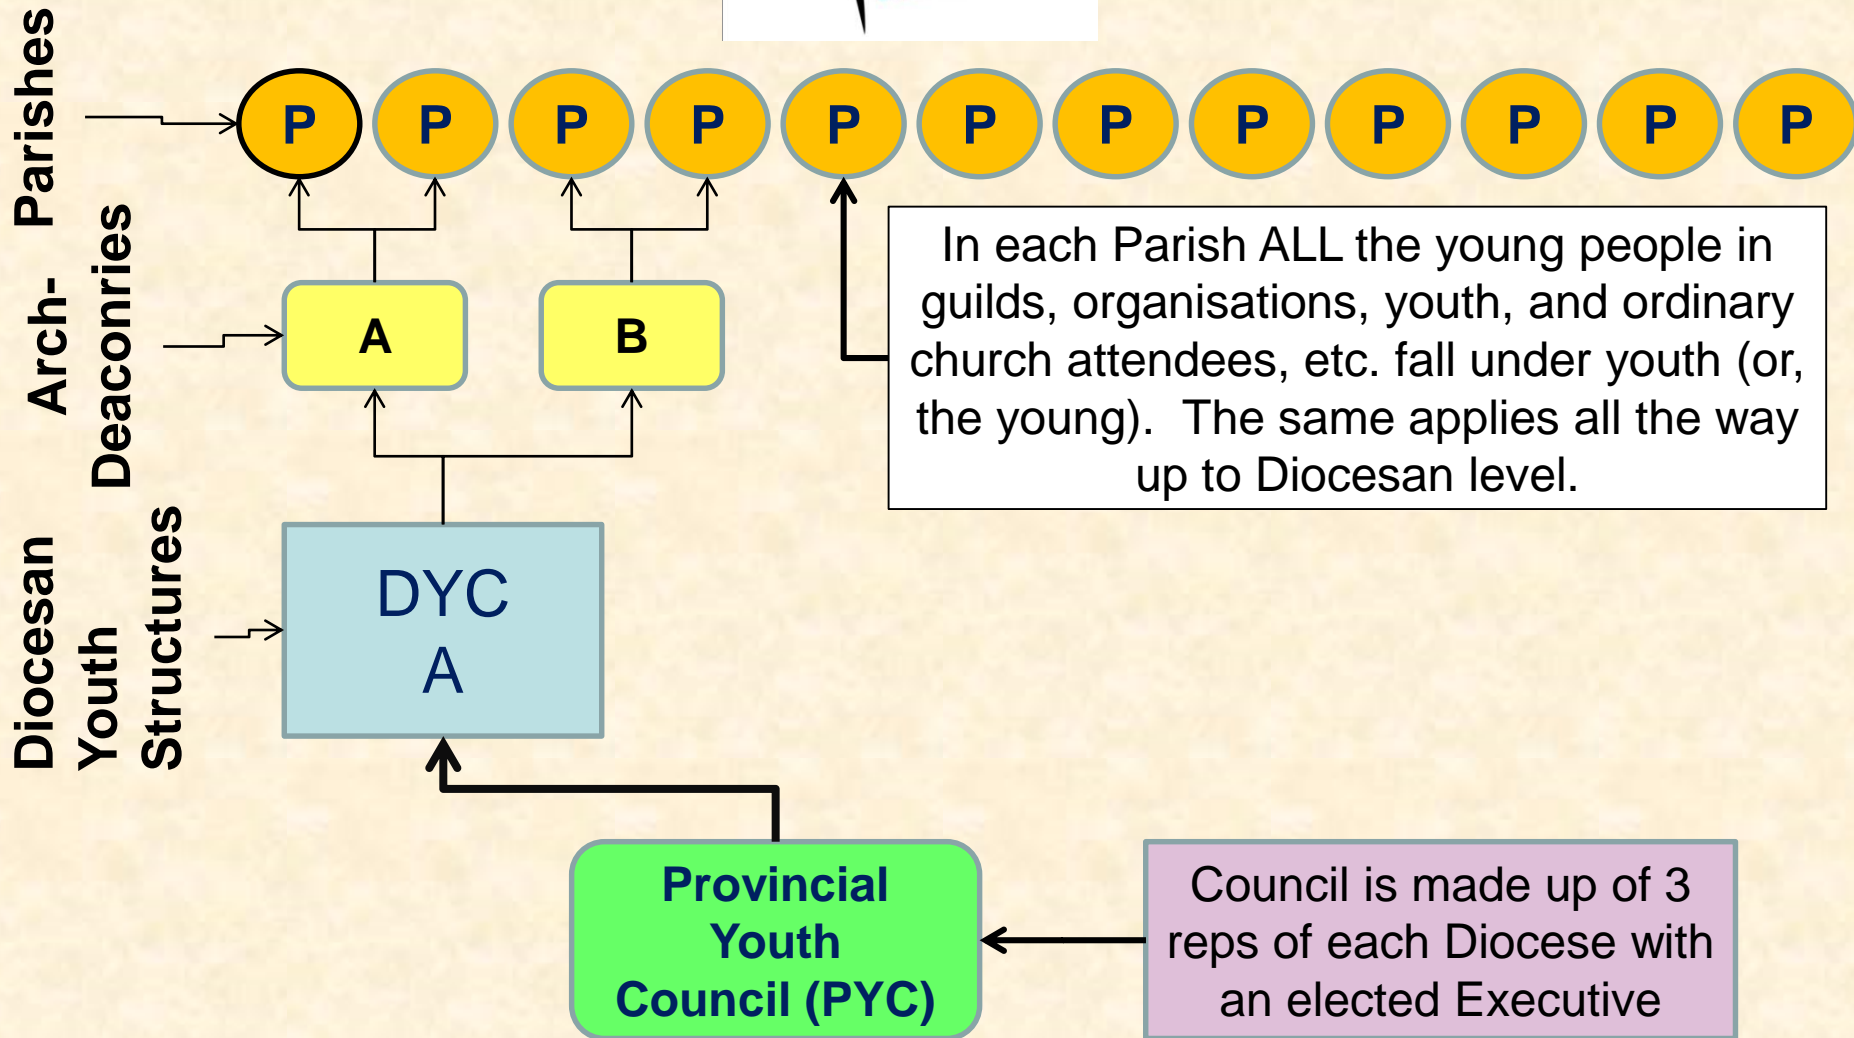

Whether they are in a guild/youth/organisation, or not,

And includes ALL organisations/guilds that have young people as members (within a Diocese).

The YOUTH

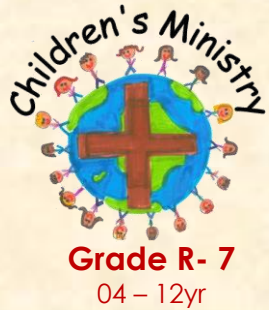

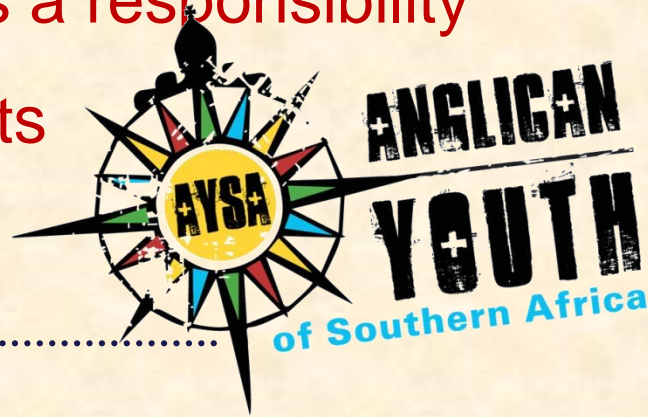

at large ! (AYSA)

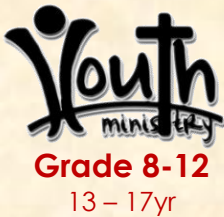

Who are we (AYSA) and PYC???????

Your Diocese has a responsibility to minister to all its Young Anglicans

Young people respond to God's call by involving themselves in

SPECIAL INTEREST MINISTRIES

Understanding Anglican ACT

Anchored - in the love of Christ

Committed - to the mission of God

Transformed - by the Holy Spirit

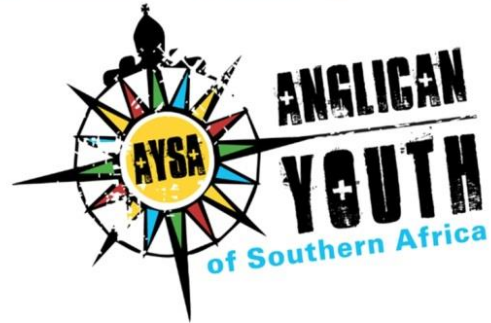

So what is PYC's (AYSA's) Action Plan?

1. Fostering & active promotion of our common identity in AYSA thereby integrating all young people related ministries
2. To establish an ACSA children's and youth ministry team to address issues such as training and development of teachers and children's workers, development of leadership skills, recommendations on facilities required, dealing with abuse of all forms, and to provide resources to all dioceses.
3. That this team pursue provision of entry level training on theology, Anglicanism, policy and pastoral standards (code of conduct), and liturgy for all Sunday school teachers, youth leaders and youth pastors – i.e. personal theological formation.

ACTION PLAN . . . Part 2

4. Development of a holistic and continuous outcomes based syllabus for children and young people with ongoing support through the establishment of an AYSA support office.
5. Creation of alternative teaching & training mediums and methodologies (Cartoons, YOUTUBE, TV, etc.)
6. Develop youthful liturgies and guidelines for the use by children and young people
7. Development of an AYSA Operations manual.
8. Establish a Provincial Fund for training of Lay Leadership in children and young people's ministries as well as for the formation of Young Clergy.
9. Contributing to Clergy formation in the area of ministry to children and young people (skills & attitude)

As the Young People of the Anglican Church of Southern Africa
We AYSA, are committed to ACT and do all that will see us

Anchored in the love of Christ

Committed to God's Mission

Transformed by the Holy Spirit

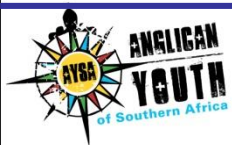

In the name of Christ,

our helper, guide and friend.

AMEN

Guiding Principles

1. AYSA covers all young people from age 0 to 35+
2. Every person in this group must be served and must also serve.
3. Ministry to the young needs to be holistic and continuous.
4. The WHOLE church needs to be supportive and involved in this ministry

Vision – Goals (AnglicansACT)

- To strengthen the ministry of young people that is currently taking place at Parish, Diocesan at Provincial level
- To connect children and young people with Jesus Christ and the Church
- To protect children and young people
- To connect young people with the mission of the Church in the world
- Promote the preservation and strengthening of families
- Generally promote the protection, development and well-being of children

Pre-requisites . . . (and foundations)

- Biblical Parents – fully committed and involved
- Spiritual development of children as early as possible in their lives
- Well trained and equipped facilitators, teachers, leaders.
- Well staffed and equipped learning and development facility at Parish level

“One of the greatest contributions we can make is to train young people in negotiating the moral and ethical issues of contemporary society. They should not fear the secular world, but be encouraged by wise church people in how to apply living faith within the complexities of today’s world, and to pursue God’s justice in all situations. ”

Archbishop Thabo Makgoba
Ad Laos of June 2012
